

Red Dog Mine

- Worlds largest producer of zinc concentrate
 - Important producer of lead concentrate
- NANA Regional Corporation
 - Landowner
- Teck Alaska Incorporated
 - Operator
- Production began November 1989
 - Known reserves sufficient for operation to 2031

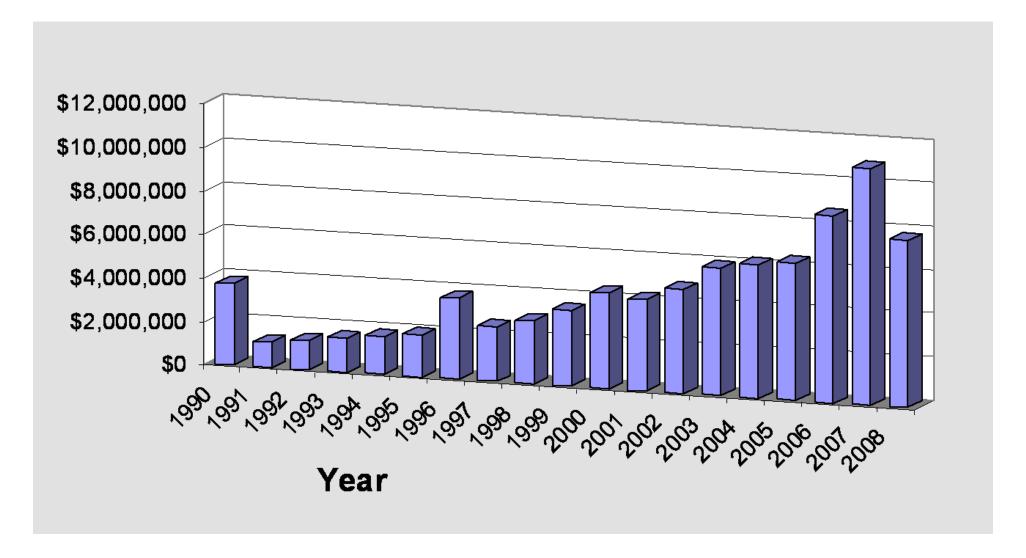

Red Dog Mine and NANA

- More than $50 million in profits (2008)
- 54 % of employees are NANA shareholders
- 15,300 hours of training in 2008
- $418,000 in scholarship/university support

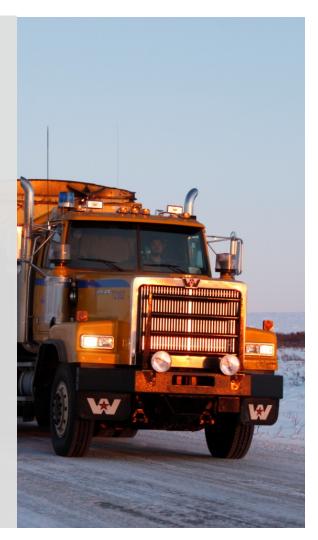

Red Dog Mine PILT

Red Dog Mine and Alaska

- Economic engine for Alaska
- $1.9 billion in wages, royalties, taxes since 1989
- $122 million in 7 (i) payments
- $480 million to Alaskan vendors
- $18 million in 2008 tolls for DMTS

Red Dog Mine and the Future

Natural Gas & Oil Exploration

- Vast potential
- Partnered with Northwest Alaska, LLC
- 3 on-shore potential drill locations
 - Kobuk Delta, Baldwin Peninsula, and Cape Espenburg
- Village outreach
- Working on permits

Bornite & Other Minerals

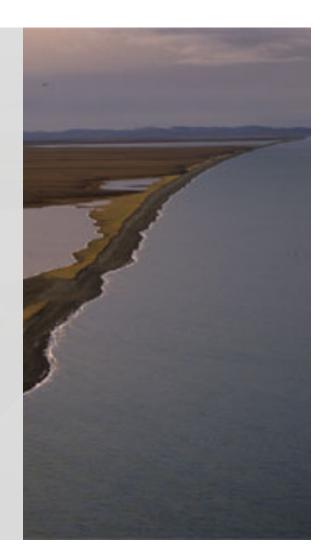

- High grade copper
- Opportunity to expand reserve
- Private land
- Potential for world class deposit
- Exploring gold, silver and other metals

Cost of Energy

- 55.4% of households received energy assistance last winter (2008)
 - Gasoline $6.68 per gallon (average)
 - Stove oil $630 per winter month (average)
 - Electricity $ 294 per month (average)

Opportunities

- Alternative and traditional energy sources
- Public/private partnerships
- Strong local support
- Unexplored potential
- Job creation

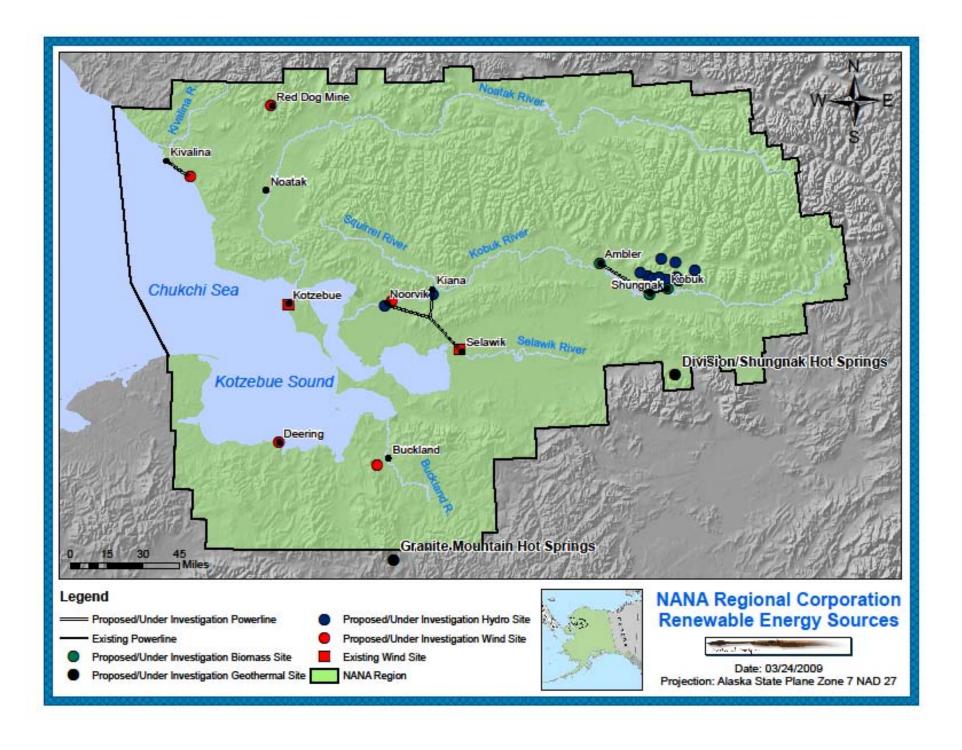

NANA Strategic Energy Plan (SEP)

- Energy Options Analysis completed
- Regional Energy Plan completed (www.nana.com)
- Regional Energy Summit
- Energy surveys completed
- $16 M (WHPacific and NANA Pacific)

Taikuu

Marie Greene
NANA Regional Corporation
President and CEO
www.nana.com

